Graham Davies Artist

Born in 1963 in Southeast London, I am a self taught artist and have been painting since I was around 10 years old.

I have a special affection for London and its scenery but above all, it is the river that attracts me. The light and dark of the sky and the water, the boats, the people and all those shades that make the Thames such a magical place.

I will always paint because it enables me to escape the daily toil; bringing to life special places and making permanent often transient memories.

Exhibition runs from Saturday 10th to Saturday 17th September 2016
